NARRATIVE:

Valles, a documented member of the Pico Nuevo street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include multiple felon in possession of a firearm, carry loaded firearm in public, carry concealed weapon while active gang member, grand theft: money, burglary, vehicle theft, and fugitive from justice. Valles has served multiple state prison terms the longest a three (3) year term for felon in possession of a loaded firearm. Valles was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 23, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after Valles absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Valles qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for grand theft: money falls under the guidelines for PRCS under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, gang affiliation, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
